FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second-class matter.

W. A. LEWIS, Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, OCT. 31, 1891.

Judge Perry Missing.

Judge J. W. Perry, who represented Owen county several terms in the Legislature and was afterwards county judge of that county, but for more than a year past a resident of Lexington, left the latter city about the first of July and has not since been seen. His wife and daughter, after waiting in vain to hear from him have gone back to their people in Owen county. He left ostensibly to go to the mountains to look after some valuable coal lands and was heard of two weeks later in Mt. Sterling. The record the Hon. Bill made while in the Legislature was not an enviable one, and the people of Frankfort will have no cause for regret if he never returns.

LATER—A letter was received from Judge Perry by a gentleman in this city on Wednesday, stating that he was in Morgan county, engaged in surveying nine hundred and fifty tracts of land. If the tracts are of any size he must intend to take in the whole county.

Careful of His Health.

George Brewer, a deckhand on the Steamer City of Clarksville, was ordered to move some barrels upon the wharf in this city, when the boat came up the first of the week, and declined upon the ground that it would injure his health. He was promptly discharged and when the boat reached Louisville Tuesday he got out an attachment for it, claiming his pay for the trip. The case was tried before a United States Commissioner in Louisville and the attachment dismissed, the court holding that he had engaged for the trip, and having violated his contract was entitled to nothing.

Wednesday's Wedding.

Wednesday afternoon Mr. Charles Featherston and Miss Jennie Hodges were married at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. Josiah Penn, Rev. W. C. Taylor officiating. They left that evening on the 4 o'clock train over the Midland for a short bridal trip.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Mr. Chas. Watts, of the Evening Journal force, and Miss Lydia R. Taylor, daughter of the late Capt. Robt. B. Taylor, were married at the Ascension Church, Rev. E. A. Penick officiating. The young people have taken rooms at the residence of the groom's father, on Steele street.

Pretty Tough Family.

Squire M. H. Kendall and two of his sons are in jail in Georgetown awaiting trial upon the charge of murder, and now Lamar Kendall, a younger son, aged sixteen years, is under bond to appear at the next term of the Scott Circuit Court to answer the charge of having stolen a saddle. The saddle was taken on Court Day from the horse of a neighbor's son while the animal was hitched to a rack in front of the courthouse in Georgetown, and was found in the possession of young Kendall on his way home. He refused to give it up, and now stands a good show of accompanying the other members of the family who escape the gallows to the Penitentiary.

Located.

Hon. John W. Headley, Secretary of State, has rented the handsome new residence of Mr. P. S. Rule, on the corner of Second and Main streets, and has located there with his family.

Decorating the Interior.

The interior of the Church of the Good Shepherd is being handsomely frescoed and new pews will be put in. There will be no services held in the Church for several weeks in consequence.

Elections Next Week.

State elections will be held on Tuesday in New York, Ohio, Massachusetts and Iowa. The result will be looked for with a great deal of interest by members of both of the great political parties, and the telegraph offices can look for a rush of callers Tuesday night.

Tobacco Barn Burned.

A barn belonging to Mr. John Bowen, near the Forks of Elkhorn, was destroyed by fire on Friday morning of last week. It was full of tobacco at the time and both barn and contents were totally destroyed. There was insurance to the amount of five hundred dollars upon the barn and one thousand upon the tobacco.

The Doctor's Next Visit.

We are pleased to call the attention of our readers to the announcement of Dr. Walter's next visit in another column. The Doctor has already treated many patients here and all are well pleased. He is master of his profession, an expert diagnostician of chronic diseases, and one who cures many cases after others fail. Be sure and consult him on his next visit at Capital Hotel, Saturday, November 7.

Grown Weary of Business.

On account of ill health, Mr. John E. Miles has offered his residence property for sale, will probably turn over the management of his interest in the City Mills to his sons and place himself in a position not to be worried by business cares until his health is fully restored. He has led a busy, active life for many years and he thinks he is now entitled to rest. He will not leave town to reside, but throw off enough of his business burdens to feel free to go and come at pleasure.

Married in Louisville.

On Wednesday Mr. Geo. B. Salender, of this city, and Miss Sallie T. Ready were married in Louisville. They came to this city the same evening and have taken rooms at the residence of the groom's father, on Second street.

On the same day Mr. Thos. M. Newman, formerly of this city but now of Hot Springs, Arkansas, and Miss Katie M. Shelly, of Louisville, were married at the Church of the Sacred Heart, in that city. Immediately after the ceremony they left for the east on a bridal tour.

Held Over to the Federal Court.

Newton Simpson, of Owen county, was arrested by Deputy U. S. Marshal Con. McCarty, and brought to this city upon the charge of detaining the United States mail. He was tried Wednesday afternoon before U. S. Commissioner Chinn and held in the sum of one hundred dollars to appear at the January term of the U. S. Court. It seems that Newton, while under the influence of liquor, met the mail carrier upon the road between Lusby's Mills, Owen county, and Corinth, Grant county, caught his horse by the bridle, detained him in the road some time and demanded his money, drawing a whisky bottle upon the carrier to enforce his demand. The carrier remonstrated with Newton, but he became violent, cursing and swearing, which frightened a lady in the stage, who began to scream, which drew a farmer living in the neighborhood to the spot, who took Newton away.

Argued the Pint.

The demurrer of the application of Hon. Walter Evans, Capt. Silas F. Miller and others for an injunction against Col. E. Polk Johnson, Public Printer, restraining him from printing and distributing the new Constitution was argued on Monday night before Judge Warren Montfort by Col. Evans for, and Attorney General W. J. Hendrick against, the granting of the injunction, when the Judge took the matter under advisement. A large crowd was present in the court-room and the arguments were listened to with a great deal of interest. Tuesday evening Judge Montfort rendered his decision sustaining the demurrer, and the case was appealed to the Court of Appeals.

Must Serve Out His Term.

Mrs. Hume Clay, of Paris, came to this city last week and made a personal appeal to Gov. Brown for the pardon of her husband, who is now serving a term in the Penitentiary on the charge of forgery. The Governor carefully considered the papers in the case and on Monday announced his determination not to grant the pardon, as there were no palliating circumstances to justify him in doing so. Clay is at present employed in the broom factory and runs a small printing press used in printing labels for the brooms. Should he serve out his term he will be an expert pressman, if not printer, when released.

Agin the Switch.

The Court of Appeals on Friday last decided that the city had no right to allow the L. & N. Railroad, to put down a switch, running from their yard on High street through Governor's alley to the mill of Messrs. Miles & Son, on Ann street. The switch is down, has been used for a year or more and inconveniences no one. It would be nonsense to order its removal.

Death of Mr. Harry Craig.

Mr. Harry H. Craig, a gentleman well known in this city, died suddenly from apoplexy, at his home in Woodford county, on Tuesday. Mr. Craig was the father of Mr. Milton P. Craig, formerly of this county, and an uncle of Mr. Louis D. Craig, of this city.

Dr. W. I. Kelley,

OF CINCINNATI, OHIO,
—WILL BE AT THE—
CAPITAL HOTEL
—IN FRANKFORT, KY.—
Friday, November 20, 1891.
Friday, December 11, 1891.

FILES, BLEEDING, BLIND or ITCHING. Cured without any surgical operation, and with little or no pain. Chloroform, Ligature or Knife is not necessary with this mode of treatment. FISTULA IN ANO is cured. FISSURES Cured without cutting or tearing. ULCERATION & CATARRH Of the bowel cured.

Dr. Kelley has now been visiting this city regularly for nearly seven years, and the many cures he has made among the wealthy and influential citizens are sufficient evidence of his success. It is now a well established fact that many diseases of the stomach, liver, kidney, bladder, womb and nervous system are either caused or aggravated by the constipation of FILES, FISTULA, FISSURES or RECTAL ULCER.
